BOARD BREAK SCORING (CLOSE SCORING)

---

Scaling from 9.0 with a maximum of 10.

Successful 1st attempt will score 0.4. Second attempt will score 0.2. Every attempt after the third will score 0. There is no limit to the number of attempts for each board.

Each appropriate technique scores 0.15. Unappropriate techniques score 0.1

The remaining 0.15 point will be scored depending on presentation - such as stances, shout, and passion.

Beginner Techniques: No jump or spin techniques. Hands, knees, elbow strikes are acceptable.

Advance Technique: Jump or spin technique (ex: Jump front kick, spin back kick, flying side-kick, superman punch). No booster / obstacle allowed.

Green belts and lower are considered beginner.

Purple belts and higher must perform ATLEAST TWO advance technique.

It is possible for multiple first place winners.

Example of scoring:

Jane Doe is an advance level boardbreak competitor. She demonstrated 3 advance kicks - Spinning Round House, Spinning Hook Kick, and Flying Side Kick. All of the above are appropriate techniques for advance breaking. ( $0.15 \times 3 = 0.45$  point)

Jane broke 2 boards her first try, and her Spinning Hook Kick required a second try. (0.2 point)

Jane had loud shout. But she lost balance for one of the landings. (0.1 point)

Jane scored  $9.0 + 0.45 + 0.2 + 0.1 = 9.75$  points.
